

ECC private music lessons take your talent to the next level!

Whether you are a new or experienced musician, ECC's private music lessons are a great way to develop your skills and take your talent to the next level.

- Instructors are accomplished, professional musicians, teach year-round and are open to all ages and skill levels.
- In-district students age 16 and older can earn college credit for private lessons.
- Each semester, students receive fourteen ½-hour lessons for $389—that's about $28 per lesson for instruction from professional, masters' level musicians in first class facilities at the ECC main campus.

Please contact the instructor directly at the contact number and/or email shown below to schedule lessons. For additional questions, contact the Performing Arts department at 847-214-7188 or email: performingarts@elgin.edu.

World Class Instructors

STRINGS:

Violin & Viola with Carol Dylan (Master of Music, Eastman School of Music, and Bachelor of Music, magna cum laude, from North Park University) Carol performs frequently with jazz and society bands in Chicago and enjoys playing in theatre and ballet orchestras, appearing with the Joffrey Ballet, San Francisco Ballet, American Ballet Theatre, Bolshoi Ballet and Broadway musicals. Carol also performs with several orchestras in the Chicago area including the Ravinia Festival Orchestra, Woodstock Mozart Festival, and has accompanied such stars as Luciano Pavarotti, Il Divo, Andrea Bocelli and Barbra Streisand. While completing her Master's degree, she was a scholarship pupil of Charles Castleman and attended the Aspen Music Festival as a recipient of a three year fellowship to study with Dorothy DeLay and Masao Kawasaki. She is the Assistant Concertmaster of the Chicago Sinfonietta and has participated in its numerous European and American tours, as well as in recordings with that group on the Fanfare and Cedille record labels. She is often heard on WFMT as part of that radio station's "Music from Studio One" and "Impromptu" programs, as well as in monthly live broadcasts of the Elgin Symphony Orchestra, where she is a member of the first violin section.

Cello with:

Kerena Moeller (Graduate Performance Diploma from Peabody Conservatory of Music, Master's Degree in Music Performance & Literature from Eastman School of Music & Bachelor's Degree in Music, and The Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester England) British cellist, Kerena Moeller, has performed concertos by Tchaikovsky, Schumann and Elgar with orchestras in England and the United States. She has performed and toured in Europe and Japan with many of the leading orchestras including the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Baltimore Chamber Orchestra, Annapolis Symphony Orchestra (principal cellist), Harrisburg Symphony Orchestra and the Handel Choir. She is currently the assistant principal cellist in the Northwest Indiana Symphony Orchestra and a section cellist with the Rockford Symphony, Illinois Philharmonic Orchestra as well as the Elgin Symphony Orchestra. In addition to teaching at ECC, Kerena is on faculty at the Music Academy of Rockford College since 2009 and teaches at the NIU Community Music School.

Double Bass with:

Tim Shaffer (Bachelor of Music – Indiana University School of Music) Individualized instruction will help you reach your full potential like many of Tim Shaffer's Bass students who have gone on to study at the nation's leading music schools. Mr. Shaffer has been a professional double bassist since the age of twenty when he joined the New Orleans Symphony, and has since been the Principal Bassist of the Elgin Symphony Orchestra, section bassist with the Grant Park Orchestra of Chicago at Millennium Park during the summer performance season, as well as an active freelance musician and substitute musician with Lyric Opera of Chicago and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. He has toured throughout the United States, Europe, and Japan and has recorded with various ensembles during his career.

PIANO with:

Constance Hughes (Master of Music in Piano – Chicago College of Performing Arts Roosevelt University) Ravinia Festival artist, performer and educator, Constance Hughes, whose performance experience includes appearances with the Kansas City Philharmonic, Independence Symphony, the Rockford Symphony, and our own Elgin Symphony Orchestra, is passionate about educating piano students of all skill levels. Ms. Hughes has presented recitals throughout the United State, as well as England, Whales and Vienna, Austria. She is a sought-after accompanist and chamber musician and has extensive teaching experience at all levels.

Jazz Piano / Piano with:

Ray Koehler (Master of Music – University of Massachusetts at Amherst, Bachelors of Music at Berklee College of Music) Cool jazz piano sounds in addition to fundamental piano instruction are offered with experienced master performer and instructor, Ray Koehler. He has studied and performed with outstanding musicians including Gary Burton, Max Roach, Juseff Lattif, and Billy Taylor and has performed at many notable Jazz clubs including the Village Vanguard and Birdland in New York. Mr. Koehler has toured widely throughout Europe, Japan, and Mexico, and is an active freelance performer and instructor in the Chicago area. Ray also teaches Jazz Theory and Music Appreciation at ECC.

Piano with:

Lannette Calhoun, a graduate of Simpson College in Indianoala, IA (BM), Lannette received her MME at the University of Wisconsin Whitewater where she has been staff accompanist for the past 6 years. Her approach to teaching has been influenced by her many years of public and private school K-12 general music positions, as well as the many opportunities she has had playing for and directing musical theatre in the states of New York, Michigan, and Wisconsin. She is currently on staff at the University of WI, Rock County and Judson University. For six years she was principal pianist with the Beloit Janesville Symphony Orchestra and adjunct at Beloit College until moving to Illinois in May 2016. She has also performed with the UWRC chamber orchestra (harpsichord) and Beloit College choirs.

Many of Lannette's piano students have gone on to major in music at schools such as Luther College, University WI Whitewater and Carthage College.

GUITAR, BASS GUITAR, Mandolin & BANJO with:

Rob Curtis (Master's Degree in Classical Guitar Performance – Roosevelt University Chicago) Classical master guitarist, Rob Curtis coaches students of all skill levels and whether you are a new or seasoned guitarist, you will appreciate his experience as a twenty-five year veteran of music performance who has toured extensively throughout the U.S., Canada, and the Caribbean. His professional resume includes performing as staff guitarist at the Sahara Club in Lake Tahoe backing acts like the Pointer Sisters, Smokey Robinson, and Little Richard, as well as performing as side-man with the Pump Room Orchestra, Bradley Young Orchestra, and the Brian Pattie Orchestra. Rob was a member of the Galena Chamber Ensemble, and is currently performing with the Elgin Symphony Orchestra.

Classical, Fingerstyle and Acoustic Guitar with:

Paul Moeller (Graduate Performance Diploma from Peabody, Master's from the Eastman School of Music, where his solo abilities also gained him a Performance Certificate - Bachelor's degree from Northern Illinois University) Classical guitarist, Paul Moeller, is a national and international concerto soloist whose successes have been confirmed by earlier distinction gained via first prizes in the D'Addario NGSW International Guitar Concerto Competition, the Northern Illinois University Concerto Competition, the National Federation of Music Clubs Guitar Competition, the First of America Midwest Young Artists National Bach Competition, and the Professional Division of the Baltimore Music Club Competition. Mr. Moeller appeared on CNN Comcast Local Edition & Maryland Public Television's "Artworks", and has performed Rodrigo's Concierto de Aranjuez with both the Beloit Janesville Symphony and Southwest Florida Symphony. He has taught the guitar throughout his career on faculty at the Maryland Conservatory of Music in Bel Air, and at the Levine School of Music in Washington, D.C. In addition to teaching at ECC, Paul is currently Visiting Associate Professor of Guitar at Northern Illinois University.

Guitar with:

Terry Bartolotta (Bachelor degree in music from Northern Illinois University and a Master's degree in music DePaul University) is a Jazz guitarist, composer and educator who has played the guitar since he was 11 years-old and studied with a long list of renowned guitarists and other musicians including: Fareded Haque, Bobby Broom, Art Davis, Ron Perillo, Don Tisch, Jim McPhedran and Tom Matta. Terry has performed with acclaimed local musicians, and leads the Terry Bartolotta Group which performs original compositions and jazz standard songs at Andy's Jazz Club, the Green Mill Lounge, Uncommon Ground, and Jerry's in Chicago. Terry teaches private guitar lessons in Hinsdale as part of Learn to Make Music and is an adjunct music professor at Harold Washington College in Chicago.

Harp with:

Nanette Felix (Bachelor of Music-Indiana University) Nanette Felix is an accomplished harpist who has achieved recognition not only for her performances as principal harpist for the Dubuque and Rockford Symphony orchestras, but also for her appearances with other prominent orchestras including the Peoria Symphony, Evansville Philharmonic, Indianapolis Civic Symphony, The Chattanooga Opera Association and the Quad City Symphony. Ms. Felix grew up in River Forest, Illinois, and attended Indiana University pursuing her studies with Chicago Lyric Opera's harpist Elizabeth Cifani, and eventually playing with the Civic Orchestra of Chicago. Her other intriguing performances have been with rock & roll legends, Rick Nielson of Cheap Trick, the Moody Blues, Ray Charles, and Doc Severinsen.

WOODWINDS:

Oboe with:

Debra Freedland (Master of Music – Indiana University) Debra's extensive orchestral experience offers oboe students of all skill levels an opportunity to reach their full potential as they learn from Ms. Freedland whose impressive orchestral experience includes principal positions with the Duluth-Superior Symphony Orchestra, Tulsa Philharmonic, the Spoleto Festival Orchestra, and the Seoul Philharmonic, as well as her current position as the Principal oboe with the Elgin Symphony Orchestra, Rockford Symphony Orchestra, and the Light Opera Works.

Bassoon with:

Gwyn Downey (Bachelor of Music, Music Theory and Composition from Ball state University) has been a performer and private music instructor in the Fox Valley and Chicago area since 1985. Her instructors include Homer Pence, Anne Eagleton from the Lyric Opera, Willard Elliot, CSO, Robert Barris and Bill Buchmann, CSO. She currently plays principal bassoon with the Park Ridge Orchestra and the Fox Valley Orchestra and performs chamber music with the Opus 3 Woodwind Trio. She recently performed the Mozart Bassoon Concerto with the Park Ridge and Fox Valley Orchestras. She has performed with the Rockford Symphony, Civic Orchestra of Chicago, The Mozart Festival Orchestra, Illinois

Philharmonic, Northbrook Sympony, Evanston Symphony and New Philharmonic Orchestra. She also serves as an adjunct bassoon professor at Judson University.

Flute/Piccolo/Recorder with:

Scott Metlicka (Master's degree in Flute Performance - Northwestern University) From chamber music to Broadway, Scott Metlicka's impressive performance resume and passion for teaching benefits flute students of all ages and skill levels. A member of the Elgin, Rockford, Wisconsin Philharmonic, and South Bend Symphonies, Scott's other orchestral engagements include Chicago Opera Theater, Grant Park Symphony, Madison Symphony and the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra as well as chamber music performances with several ensembles. He studied with Walfrid Kujala, Mary Stolper, and Mary Louise Poor. Scott won first prize in the Chicago Flute Club Piccolo Competition. Scott performed as flute soloist on Ibert's Concerto for Flute and Orchestra with the Rockford Symphony in 2016. He previously taught flute method classes for music education majors at DePaul University. He has also served as president and membership chair of the Chicago Flute Club.

Clarinet & Saxophone with:

Deborah Zelman (Master of Music degree in Clarinet Performance and a Bachelor of Science in Music Education from University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where she studied under the direction of Howard Klug.) She has also studied with Charlene Zimmerman of the Grant Park Symphony and Lyric Opera Orchestra. Ms. Zelman performs locally as a principal clarinetist with the DuPage Symphony Orchestra and DuPage Symphony Woodwind Quintet. She is an active freelance and jazz musician, and performs regularly as a clarinetist, saxophonist and jazz vocalist with the DuPage Community Jazz Ensemble and Zazz Quintet. Deborah is an adjunct faculty member at Elgin Community College where she is the private music lesson manager, and maintains the clarinet and saxophone studios in addition to a private studio in Naperville and two area high schools. She has extensive teaching experience at all levels and also serves as Director of Children's Choirs at Saint John's Episcopal Church in Naperville.

Saxophone with:

Donnie Sujack (Bachelor's degree in music education with emphasis on saxophone performance from DePaul University,) where he studied with Susan Cook and Mark Colby. He is a saxophonist, woodwind doubler, and music educator based out of the western suburbs of Chicago. He primarily performs as a member of the 85th United States Army Band and as a freelance classical and Jazz musician. His performance experience includes work as an artist in the Wheaton Municipal Band, the TriTone Saxophone Trio, the Chicago Symphonic Winds, the Civic Orchestra of Chicago, Limited Edition Big Band, Big Band Boom, and the Fred Cantu Big Band. Along with performing, Donnie teaches private saxophone lessons in several cities including Elmhurst, Addison, Villa Park and Chicago. He is often called to sub in groups including the Limited Edition Big Band, the DePaul University Wind Ensemble, and the Northeastern University Wind Ensemble.

Saxophone with:

Natalie Scharf (Bachelor's degree in music education from Northern Illinois University) and is a 4th generation musician and music educator. Natalie has studied privately with many Chicago Jazz professionals including Ron Dewar, Bill Overton, Steve Duke, Mike Smith and Art Davis. Her ensemble experience includes NIU Wind and Jazz Ensembles touring internationally, Paris Swing, Natalies Wood Plays Roland Kirk, The Model Citizens Big Band, The Pete Ellman Big Band, The Rip-Ups, nationally aired broadcasts of the television show "Svengoolie," and many others. Her private lesson studio includes saxophone, clarinet, and flute and is she the band director for East Main Middle School.

BRASS:

Trumpet with:

Ryan Hobbs is an active freelance musician and teacher in Chicago. He is a regular member of the Northbrook Symphony Orchestra, and is the founder/trumpet of Northside Brass. Ryan maintains a versatile schedule as a musician and as a classical player has played extra with the Oistrach Symphony (Chicago), International Chamber Artists (Chicago) Paderewski Symphony (Chicago), The Millar Brass Ensemble, Bach-Week Festival (Chicago), New Philharmonic Orchestra,

Fox Valley Symphony (Appleton, WI), Present Music Milwaukee, Illinois Philharmonic Orchestra, Fox Valley Orchestra (Aurora, IL), Peoria Symphony Orchestra, Battle Creek Symphony Orchestra (MI), Dubuque Symphony Orchestra (IA), Racine Symphony Orchestra, and the Kenosha Symphony Orchestra. As a commercial player Ryan has played extra with Dennis DeYoung and "Styx", Doc Severinson, and the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra. He can also be found in Broadway show pit orchestras around Chicago including recent runs of "Kiss me Kate", "Guys and Dolls", and "In the Heights". Finally, Ryan is passionate about music education and maintains an active private studio in the Chicago-land area with over 50 students.

French Horn with:

Kelly Langenberg (M.M. – DePaul University, B.M., B.M.E. – Baldwin Wallace College Conservatory of Music) is a thriving performer and teacher with a growing list of accomplishments and performing opportunities. Recent appearances include the Chicago Brass Festival, International Wonen's Brass Conference, and two national tours with the Alliance Brass Quintet, the Chicago Brass Festival and the Mid-North Horn workshop with the Uber Horn Quartet and many others. She has performed live on Iowa Public Television and can be seen performing on the internationally-released PBS Special Broadcast "Ethan Bortnick, The Power of Music". Her primary teachers include Neil Kimel, Jon Boen, and Hans Clebsch. Ms. Langenberg is the Horn Instructor at University of Illinois at Chicago, Illinois Wesleyan University, North Park University and Elgin Community College. She is a Hans Hoyer USA Concert Artist and a Denis Wick Artist and Clinician.

Trombone & low brass with:

Mark Fry (Bachelor of Music Performance for Trombone at the University of Houston-University Park, Houston, TX) Mark is currently the bass trombonist of the Elgin Symphony Orchestra, Lake Forest Symphony and Third Coast Brass. Mr. Fry performs regularly with the Chicago Philharmonic, Joffrey Ballet and Chicago Opera Theater. He has performed with numerous orchestras in the United States, including the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Lyric Opera of Chicago, Grant Park Orchestra, Chicago Sinfonietta, Houston Symphony Orchestra, Colorado Symphony Orchestra, San Antonio Symphony, Charleston Symphony Orchestra, Britt Festival Orchestra (Oregon), Sarasota Opera, Des Moines Metro Opera and Spoleto Festival – Italy. He has performed with the Chicago Symphony in Carnegie Hall during the fall of 2001 and the Houston Symphony during their 2010 tour of England and Scotland. Before moving to Chicago, he was the bass trombonist of the Hawaii Symphony Orchestra in Honolulu and has performed with such groups as Fulcrum Point New Music Project and on the Chicago Symphony's Music Now series. Mr. Fry has recorded with the Houston Symphony Orchestra, Mannheim Steamroller, New Black Music Repertory Ensemble and the Spoleto Festival Orchestra, as well as for radio and television commercials.

PERCUSSION with:

Steve Butters (Master's of Music-University of Illinois) Steve Butters has been performing professionally in Chicago since 1991, and has performed throughout the United States, Europe, and Asia as a soloist and as a member of such diverse groups as Tone Road Ramblers Ensemble, NoAmnesia, and Maverick Ensemble. Steve has recorded for the Opus One, Einstein, and Drag City music labels. Though still widely regarded as an interpreter of contemporary percussion music, Steve began focusing on the steel drum soon after moving to the Chicago area. In addition to performing and teaching private music lessons for ECC, Steve directs the Elgin Community College Steel Band program. He is also on the faculty of Chicago State University where he teaches Percussion and Percussion Methods, and his Steel Band group, Pan Chicago, has been livening up the Chicago area with sounds of the Caribbean since 2000.

VOICE with:

Kathi Bernhard (MA-Curriculum & Instruction, Concordia University; Bachelor's of Music, Milliken University) Performer and former middle and high school choir director and music teacher, Kathi Bernhard, has an impressive career as a music educator. She was on staff at ECC as an instructor for Music for the Elementary Teacher for seven years and has been listed in Who's Who Among American Teachers numerous times. Ms. Bernhard has guest conducted several middle school and high school choral festivals in addition to the Elgin Children's Concert and Chamber choirs. She led Elgin High School IMEA

Division I Chamber Choir in addition to the high school's madrigal group, vocal jazz ensemble, musical theater productions, and she directed five choirs daily during her tenure at EHS. Coming from an educator's background, Kathi uses a combination of imagery, Alexander's Technique, and visual resources to help her students acquire a solid understanding of vocal skills in order to tap into the beauty and musicality of their voice.

Lyndy Simons-Buglio (Master's of Music, Northwestern University) Coloratura Soprano, Lyndy Simons-Buglio, celebrated an illustrious career as the lead performer with numerous national and international companies (Spoleto Festival USA, Piedmont Opera, Western Plains Opera, Skylight Opera Theater, Capital City Opera, The Florentine Opera, Opera Omaha, Eugene Opera, Virginia Opera, Knoxville Opera, DuPage Opera Theater, Chicago Opera, Washington Symphony Orchestra, the Dayton Philharmonic, Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, Vancouver Opera, Bochumer Symphoniker, Le Theatre Royal de la Monnaie—Brussels, English National Opera) before pursuing the "normal" life of a private music instructor at ECC and two other junior colleges. Ms. Buglio has also taught master classes at various schools and universities and her talent is featured on the commercial CD, Circle All Around Me, singing a four movement work commissioned for her and composer Ron Warren, entitled Quatros Sonetos de Amor.